MUSIC Wien Modern

With over 110 performances by 30 orchestras, choirs and ensembles, this major festival aims to give a stage to contemporary music and composers like Olga Neuwirth (pictured), with many pieces played for the first time ever. This year's theme is "Security," an exploration of control and freedom, safety and risk and how they keep each other in permanent balance. Beginning with the opening concert with the Vienna Philharmonic that will perform without a conductor, the many artists present will prove that "classical" music is not a thing of the past.
